I am afraid the words

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

No 6292
367

Bangalore, 20th January 1905

From

H J BHABHA, Esq, M.A.,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To B K Venkataravindiyar Esq, Secretary to the Government of H H,
the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Dept., Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that Rokhiabi, Head mistress of the Hindustani Girls' School, Dodballapur and Rahman Bi, Assistant mistress of the Hindustani Girls' School, Chitaldroog have passed the Lower Secondary Examination. They now pray for promotion in consideration of their poor circumstances and on the score of their having passed the Lower Secondary Examination. The Deputy Inspector of Hindustani Schools strongly recommends their promotion. Under these circumstances I recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction an increase of their pay from Rs 7 to 15 per month with effect from 1st July 1905. Government

Order No. 1239-116 dated 24th July 1901 provides that the salary of female teachers that have passed the Lower Secondary Examination may be raised to a minimum of Rs 20 per month. There are no savings which may be pointed out for this increase of pay.
The vernacular male teachers are so poorly paid that it is not possible to show savings from their pay to give the necessary increases to passed female teachers. And yet unless such increases are paid to passed female teachers, there is no encouragement for them to pass examinations and to improve their teaching. In the interests of female education such increases are from time to time required. I hope therefore Government will be good enough to sanction the present proposal.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. P. Prabha
Inspector General -
